MAYOR OF NEWARK IS REMOVED BY GOVERNOR

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 9.—Mayor Herbert A. Atherton of Newark was removed from office today by Governor Davis for "gross neglect" in permitting gambling to run wide open in Newark.

The governor in removing Atherton declared that conditions in Newark under Atherton's administration had "impaired the interests of all the people of the state."

In a statement, Governor Davis declared that two charges had been brought against Mayor Atherton—gross neglect of duty and misconduct in office. Atherton was found guilty only on the first charge.

The governor declared that the second charge had not been substantiated, although evidence offered being that of self-confessed gamblers who were seeking vengeance.

The statement declared that gambling had long been widespread in Newark, and that Mayor Atherton had been negligent in not prosecuting the gamblers. The gambling had been open and known to the public, the statement declared.

Governor Davis stated that no arrests for gambling had been made in Newark until about the time the New York Law and Order League filed the charges against Atherton.

Testimony showed, the statement declared, that complaint had been made against one gambling house located at the corner of the street from the police station, but that the police did not investigate for 45 minutes and that the gambling house had been closed only after the complaint had been received of a coming raid.

Charges of bribery against Atherton were not substantiated, Governor Davis declared. The only testimony offered to this effect, he indicated, had been given by self-confessed gamblers seeking revenge.

Science Makes Short Grow Tall

Thyroid Pills Makes Them Grow

Mrs. J. W. Espenschied of New Philadelphia, O., and her dwarfed children, Anna May (left) and Bertha, who are being made to grow up by taking thyroid pills. The children are 10 years 6 months and 9 years 6 months respectively. The picture, just taken, shows they are still much under size.

BY C. C. LYON
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 9.—Maybe the day is already here when short men can make six-footers out of themselves merely by taking a few pills.

Science has recently achieved some wonderful results along the line of growth control. And it is on the verge of further important discoveries.

Nothing could be more amazing than the cases of the two Eschenried children of New Philadelphia—Anna May, 10 years 6 months old, and Bertha, 9 years 6 months.

Just 12 months ago they were babies in arms. Anna May was almost the exact height and weight of a 15-month old baby of a neighbor across the street, while Bertha was even smaller.

Today Anna May is as large as a normal five-year-old child and Bertha as a four-year-old.

Classed as Cretins

They were not dwarfs. They were classed as cretins. From infancy they had failed to grow, either physically or mentally. The medical profession studied them frequently, but failed to find the cause.

In September, 1920, the two "babies" were brought to the State Bureau of Juvenile Research and placed under observation by Dr. H. H. Goddard, head of the institution.

Goddard is not a physician, but he is recognized as one of the world's greatest psychologists.

Goddard soon announced that the children had an "thyroid gland."

The question came from all quarters: "What have thyroid glands to do with it?"

"The thyroid," said Goddard, "is a gland in the neck. For a long time it has been known to have a distinct effect upon growth and it has been known that cretinism (failure to grow) has been due either to the absence or disease of this gland."

Feeds Children Glands

Goddard hit upon the idea of feeding the two Eschenried children extract of thyroid glands taken from hares and bullfrogs.

The "extract" was prepared in the form of pills, and the mother, Mrs. J. W. Espenschied, took the children home with instructions to give them each nine pills a day—three at each meal.

Let the happy mother tell the rest of the story.

"Dr. Goddard's wonderful pills made Anna May grow three inches the first 27 days of the treatment and ten inches during the first seven months.

"In a few days it will be just one year since she started taking the pills and she is now fully 14 inches taller, and as big as an ordinary five-year-old child.

"Bertha hasn't grown so fast physically, although she is now the size of a normal four-year-old child, but her mental development has been faster than Anna May's.

Growing Like Woods

"A year ago, my two little girls had the bodies and minds of mere babies, while now they are really growing like woods and are beginning to talk.

"Their mental development has been amazing in so short a time, under Dr. Goddard's treatment, they will be entirely normal."

Mrs. Espenschied has an older daughter, Freda, who is normal in every respect and who, at 12 years of age, is in the eighth grade at school.

Another remarkable instance of "forced" growth through the feeding of thyroid extract is that of a 15-year-old dwarf. He grew two inches taller, but the treatment had to be suspended on account of his great loss in weight.

Dr. Goddard Explains Forced Growth

BY DR. H. H. GODDARD
Director Ohio Bureau of Juvenile Research

ONE given to pessimism might dilate at length upon what an unsatisfactory people we are. The fat want to be thin, the thin want to be fat. The tall want to be short, the short want to be tall.

It is true that two children under care of the Ohio Bureau of Juvenile Research have been given thyroid extract with the result that their growth has been greatly stimulated.

These thyroid glands, however, have been administered to types known as cretins or persons born without the thyroid gland. And so far as known, the treatment is of little value in other cases of retarded growth.

The thyroid is a Y-shaped gland in the neck lying pretty nearly under where the collar bones come together. It is the enlargement of this gland through disease or overgrowth that causes the goiter. It has long been known that cretinism is due either to the absence of this gland or to its disease.

The thyroid gland has for a long time been known to have a distinct effect upon growth.

NARCOTIC OFFICER COMMITTS SUICIDE

NEW YORK, September 9.—After a raid by federal prohibition and narcotic agents on the Greek steamship King Alexander today, in which seven members of the crew were wounded by pistol shots, Frank J. Fitzpatrick, chief narcotic officer here, who had taken part in the raid, committed suicide at a nearby pier, according to a police report.

Ernest L. Langley, chief prohibition agent here, who had charge of the raid, attributed the suicide to chronic ill health, saying that Fitzpatrick was obsessed with the belief that he had tuberculosis. Other federal agents said that Fitzpatrick acted queerly after being struck on the head during the fighting with the crew of the ship.

NEW YORK, September 9.—Seven members of the crew of the Greek steamship King Alexander were shot and slightly wounded by federal prohibition agents in a pistol battle on the vessel at a Brooklyn dock today. Liquor valued at $30,000 and drugs valued at $75,000 were confiscated. The Alexander participated in a midnight race to port from beyond the three mile limit on September 1, in an effort to make sure that the immigrants on board would be admitted to the country under the monthly quota regulations.

More than a score of shots were exchanged by the crew and fifteen prohibition agents, but none of the prohibition agents were hurt.

In order to obtain evidence, the prohibition agents said, two of them arranged on Wednesday with members of the crew to pay $14,000 on the vessel today for the liquor and drugs. These two went on the vessel alone. Meanwhile, a number of the crew needed a launch with the other agents approaching. He warned his comrades and the battle began.

The raid was under the direction of Ernest L. Langley, chief federal enforcement agent in New York. The agents searched the vessel thoroughly, the crew fleeing before them below decks. There were intermittent pistol shots from both crew and agents as the search progressed and when the battle subsided, three of the wounded men were found lying in their bunks.

Mr. Langley said that $300 had just been paid by one of the advance agents and part of the contraband articles delivered when the crew's suspicions were aroused.

Employment Situation In Ohio Is Improving

COLUMBUS, O., September 9.—Two hundred thousand men in the seven largest cities of Ohio are idle, according to data compiled and made public today by George E. Miles, chief of the state free labor employment agencies.

The date was gathered at the request of Secretary Hoover of the department of commerce and is to be presented at the conference called by President Harding to discuss the unemployment situation throughout the country.

Cleveland reported 50,000 men out of work, while Akron estimated the number in that city at 14,500. Youngstown reported 20,000 unemployed and Dayton 18,000. Columbus reported 14,145 unemployed; Cincinnati, 50,000; and Toledo, 25,000.

These figures were furnished to Mr. Miles by the superintendent of the free employment bureaus in each city. Mr. Miles reported, however, that the employment situation in Ohio is better than it was a month ago and prospects are good for a gradual resumption of work in several cities.

Woman Outwits Heartless Bandit

WINDSOR, ONT., September 9.—George Allen is $5,000 richer today because Mrs. Allen had the nerve to perform a feat of legendary valor with a bandit's pistol pressed against her head.

Knocking before a safe in her home at the robber's command, Mrs. Allen opened the safe and swept $5,000 into her lap. Then she handed the robber $500 with which he escaped in an automobile.

CHARLESTON, W. VA.—The 26th Infantry, the 88th aero squadron and a chemical warfare service section returned to their stations after being sent into West Virginia to quell disturbances last week.

Democrats And Republicans Open War Again; Back To Normalcy In Politics

WASHINGTON, September 8.—After six months of a truce that were more apparent than real, the Democratic and Republican parties have come out in the open and gone back to partisan politics. The Democrats have begun an attack on the Administration and as usual the incumbent party fights back with as serious of great achievement.

No Truce Behind Scenes

Behind the scenes there hasn't been any truce at all. Deserving Republicans have been clamoring for offices and ousted Democrats have reluctantly let go. Chairman George White, of the Democratic National Committee, started out with a plan of "standing behind the President" for patriotic reasons and kept his benches from kicking over the traces too soon in partisan attack. But the action of the Republicans in excluding the Democrats from the Ways and Means Committee meetings, at which the tariff and tax measures were discussed, indicated that the non-partisan days of the war were not to be repeated and that it was a free-for-all fight along the same lines as existed before the war when the Democrats framed their Administration measures in party conferences.

Back To Normalcy In Politics

As an indication that things are back to normalcy in politics, much comment is heard upon the fact that President Harding's letter to Senator McPherson attacking the method by which the Democratic Administration managed the war has not been regarded as an emergency, although Mr. Wilson's letters to Democratic Senators approving of Congressional elections were made the basis for widespread criticism.

The difference today is that the fighting is back on the old lines with arguments for the Administration and against it.

Sinn Fein Ireland Must Declare Whether It Plans To Separate From Britain

LONDON, September 9.—Sinn Fein Ireland is called upon to state whether its demands upon the British government contemplate separation from Great Britain, according to the view of newspapers here. The text of the reply of the British cabinet to Eamon DeValera's latest note, made public last night, was considered as a demand for a definite reply from the Irish Republican leader, and a plain declaration that the writing of notes between Dublin and London can not be continued. It was believed that Prime Minister Lloyd George had smoothed the way for an acceptance by Mr. DeValera and his colleagues of the invitation to confer with members of the British government at Inverness on September 20.

The text of the cabinet's reply to Mr. DeValera was prominently displayed in the papers here today, and the explanation was generally expressed that the government had gone as far as possible. There was considerable speculation as to the nature of Mr. DeValera's reply to the note, and much advice was given him by the various journals.

"It is impossible to say," said the Daily News, "that the present note asks anything whatever of Ireland that is not freely conceded by Australia, Canada and the ruling majority of South Africa. This may not be the basis for an agreement, but it appears monstrous to say it is not the basis for a discussion."

The Daily Chronicle says that in the answer they sent to London, Mr. DeValera and his friends must decide whether they are for or against a settlement.

"If the earnest desire of all but a fraction of southern Ireland could determine the matter," remarked the Daily Telegraph, "the Irish government's invitation unquestionably would be accepted without delay. We shall see how far Mr. DeValera and his colleagues are prepared to recognize their responsibility in this regard to the nation for which they claim to speak."

The London Times declared that Mr. Lloyd George "opens the door to an agreement between Great Britain and Ireland as wide as he can."

DeValera May Not Attend

DUBLIN, September 9.—The Associated Press—A rumor was current in Sinn Fein circles here today that if plenipotentiaries are appointed to proceed to Inverness to confer with the committee of the British cabinet, Eamon DeValera, the Republican leader, does not desire to be one of them, being willing to leave the conduct of negotiations with Arthur Griffith, the Sinn Fein foreign minister. In any case, Mr. Griffith would be the chief figure in the negotiations, once actual business is approached.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 9.—The comptroller of the currency today issued a call for the closure of all national banks at the close of business on Tuesday, September 13.

COLUMBUS, O., September 9.—The state superintendent of banks today issued a call for the condition of state banks at the close of business on Tuesday, September 13.

Harding To Name Democrat As Member Of American Disarmament Delegation

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 9.—President Harding has made it known that the main American delegation to the disarmament conference probably will not have more than four members, and that one of the four probably will be a Democrat.

In reply to an appeal from Representative Jeffers, Democrat, Alabama, that a former service man be named as one of the American commissioners, the president under date of September 8, wrote Mr. Jeffers that "it does not seem likely that it will be practical to having an ex-service man of temporary experience into the conference because of the limited number in the delegation, and the further fact that the larger military and naval information necessary to justify prudent action will necessarily come from actual service men who devote all their time to naval and military problems."

The president also told Mr. Jeffers he was writing the letter "on the presumption that the main delegation would be a very small one, probably not exceeding four in membership."

Immense Corn Crop In Ohio; Potato Yield Poor

COLUMBUS, O., September 9.—Ohio's corn crop this year will be approximately 146,000,000 bushels, at least five million bushels more than the average crop for the past five years, according to the September crop report of C. J. West, state federal agricultural statistician, issued today.

Corn has responded to the improved weather conditions and shows an increase in condition of 10 points since the last report, the report said. "The condition of corn in the eastern and south central parts of the state is better than in the western and southwestern sections owing to the fact that until recently most of the rains have been local. The improvement between August 1 and September 1, resulted in an additional 10 bushels per acre of corn in the estimated crop of 146,000,000 bushels."

Results from this year tend to confirm worst fears regarding the crop and the indications are for about 146,000,000 bushels.

LAUNCHED IN CORN FIELD

AKRON, S. C.—Marshfield Butler and Charles Thompson, negroes, were lynched in a corn field near here after they had been charged with an attack upon a white woman.

ELITE, MICH., September 9.—W. A. Patterson, pioneer vehicle manufacturer, died at his home here early today of pneumonia. He was 82 years old.

Women To Take Part In Jobless Meet

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 9.—Women are to participate in the conference on unemployment being arranged by President Harding and Secretary Hoover.

The president today discussed with Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, of Warren, Ohio, the question of choosing women as delegates. Mrs. Upton was asked by the president to suggest names of several women and she agreed to submit soon a list of 10 women.

Negro Executed For Murdering A Policeman

COLUMBUS, O., September 9.—The body of Sylvester Brown, 27, negro, electrocuted early this morning at the Ohio penitentiary, will be shipped to Youngstown today. Brown suffered the death penalty at 1:07 a. m. for the murder of Alexander R. Warren, Youngstown policeman, on May 11 last.

According to the story Brown told, he, with three other negroes, planned a holdup and robbery at Youngstown, but when one of the party failed to show up, they abandoned their plan. While returning from the scene of the contemplated crime, the party encountered Patrolman Warren, who told them to halt. Brown drew his pistol and fired four times into the policeman's body before the officer could pull his own gun over.

The party escaped but were soon captured and Brown was admitted to the penitentiary from Mahoning county, March 21.

Yesterday Brown's wife appealed to Warden Thomas for a permission to witness the execution, saying that she wanted to be with her husband in his last moments.

last moments, but her plea was refused. Earlier in the day Brown had given his consent to her presence at the time of his execution.

Brown went to the chair calm and composed. His steps were steady and he seated himself without assistance, placing his arms and legs in their proper position without the least manner. He carried a small brown Bible with him to the chair, clasped in his right hand and when the current shut out his life he was softly pleading for divine mercy.

Habitually used after a child's bath, it heals and prevents soreness and rashes."—Mabel E. Miller, R. N., W. Carthage, N. Y.

Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (tested). The inventor D. R. Johnson, 626 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the user in each locality who will try his full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the lamp, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month—advertising.

IRONTON BANKRUPT; FIREMEN AND POLICE "PAYLESS" FOR 5 MONTHS

The Ironton Register has the following concerning the bankrupt condition of Ironton:

"Counting today the city owes the firemen and policemen five months' and eight days pay, an amount in excess of $50,000 each. There is no immediate prospect of paying these claims and the question that concerns the public is, just how long can these men stand the pressure? We know from frank admissions made by some of the men that their grocers and meat dealers have notified them that they cannot carry them further. The men and their families cannot starve or freeze and some action is essential immediately if these or other men are to retain places in the service of the city. The situation is one of public as well as official concern and the public cannot longer ignore it. If the fire department is abandoned the most in insurance rates will be greater on each individual than the amount of the proposed tax increase. With garbage men, street men, policemen and all city employees off duty Ironton would become a notable place in all the country. Something must be done. The workmen cannot see how the election is going to get their money. They must have it soon or the city will suffer irreparably. The time has passed for quibbling, there MUST be an arrangement whereby these employees can get relief. If the money is available in any fund it should be used if it can possibly be done. Then

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have catarrhal deafness or any kind of hearing or nose trouble, nose go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of purgative medicine, and add 10 drops of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take one teaspoonful four times a day.

This will also bring back relief from the distressing head noises, ringing, buzzing, roaring, etc., and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has catarrhal deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial. Advertisement.

The man or woman who opposes the additional levy at the November election is an enemy to his or her own best interests. No single set of officials are to blame for the present conditions. In fact, no one is to blame. All officials, here and elsewhere, are to spend a little more lavishly of the city's money than they do their own, but this is quite natural. State examiners coming over so often, go over the officials' books and accounts and see that things are kept straight. No one has been stealing of our money. We are simply compelled to pay our debts at a time when it is the most difficult. Hereafter we could postpone the evil day of settlement and use the money to pay running expenses. The state has stepped in and stopped this and says we must pay our OLD DEBTS. This takes all the money from operating expenses of the city. Now can you afford as a community for the sake of a few dollars to the individual to say to the world that we will do without fire protection, garbage removal, street lights, police protection? It is shameful to even think of such a proposition.

"Can the city must pay its employees NOW. The men cannot go on without money. No man will take the regular men's places under the conditions. What are we, as a community, going to do?"

Man Who Tried To Rob Doctor Is Dope Victim

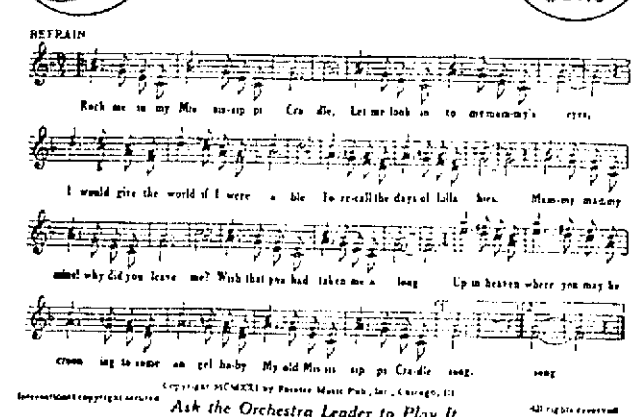

It has developed that James Smith, the prisoner held at the city jail in connection with attempting to rob the office of Dr. William D. Schafer, Ninth and Waller streets, Wednesday morning, is a victim of the drug habit. Deprived of the "dope" since his confinement, Smith, who is 27 years old and claims Solalia, Mo., as his home, is almost a raving maniac, and he became so violent Friday morning that it was necessary to put him in shackles. The condition of the man makes it apparent that he and his pal, who escaped, were searching for "dope" to appease their appetites when discovered rifling the medicine cases at Dr. Schafer's office. An investigation has further disclosed that the pair visited the offices of a number of physicians in the city the past two days and at one place stole a couple of pairs of shoes.

At The Eastland Theatre Tonight and Tomorrow, Two Big Features—Larry Senon, the Comedy King, in "The Fall Guy," Senon's Newest and Funniest Comedy, and Jack London's Greatest Novel, "The Little Fool," The Drama of a Woman's Indecision, With Milton Sills And An All-Star Cast.

"The Fall Guy" is different from any of the previous Senon comedies. It takes place in the age when men become intoxicated on ice cream sodas and barrooms do a big business with silver and dashes, madly over the top. Pretty girls continue to do the bronco steering up longer rides his horse, but throws his saddle over a range. The husband knows of her weakness for moonshine society, but pays little attention to it. Then enters the third party. Evan Graham, an old chum, falls desperately in love and is loved in return. Dick gives his wife the choice of leaving him. A limousine speeds down the driveway, and the husband surrenders himself to despair. The working out of the situation is in to other people's business.

There are the comic thrills and unexpected situations that have made Larry Senon comedies lead in fun makers of this type. "The Fall Guy" has the true Senon touch and contains a laugh every second.

The coming of a Jack London picture is always an event for out of the ordinary, which is why the announcement that "The Little Fool," a Metro release of a C. E. Shurtleff, Inc. all-star production is coming to the Eastland theatre tonight for a run of three days, gives pleasant anticipation.

"The Little Fool" is a screen adaptation from Jack London's "The Little Lady of the Big House." It is the fourth Metro release of Jack London pictures, the others being "Burning Daylight," "The Mating of the Sun," and "The Star Rover."

The story deals with Paula, a fascinating creature who attracts all the men invited to the palatial home of her husband, "Dick" Forrester. The husband knows of her weakness for moonshine society, but pays little attention to it. Then enters the third party. Evan Graham, an old chum, falls desperately in love and is loved in return. Dick gives his wife the choice of leaving him. A limousine speeds down the driveway, and the husband surrenders himself to despair. The working out of the situation is in to other people's business.

This Devil is a human being. He's your friend, your enemy. He laughs, he teases. He mocks, he shocks. He taunts, he taunts. He advises, he surprises. By wily brain and cunning guile, he plays with the weaknesses of men and women.

That's how George Arliss portrays him in his screen debut of this, his greatest stage success.

He makes him fascinating, startling and mind-clutching. He makes it the supreme artistic triumph of acting by the fire of his genius he makes it and himself immortal.

"The Devil" is an epoch making production. It is gorgeous, lavish, brilliant. Its settings attain the pinnacle of elaborate luxury. And the comparable cast of Sylvia Browne, Edmund Lowe, Lucy Cotton, Richard Egan and Mrs. Arliss add lustre to this crowning achievement.

Talk of the Devil, he is at the Eastland Theatre Monday.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—Would you please tell me what the population of Portsmouth is, and also how many are employed in the shoe factories and steel plant? And when visiting would it be correct to accept an invitation without consulting your host?

A READER

The population of Portsmouth at the last census was 33,011. Since then we have annexed Sciotoville, and its suburbs with an approximate population of 3,000, giving us a population of about 36,000. The Excelsior, Solly, and Irving Drew Shoe Companies employ about 4,000 people. When running full the Whitaker-Glossner employs about 500. Visitors should call their host or hostess about accepting invitations so as not to interfere with any arrangements they may have made for them.

Dear Miss Wise—I often hear about young girls coming men and I would like to know how they do it, or how they act. Of course I don't want to copy any man myself but am just a little curious about how they do it.

EAST END GIRL

I don't know just how they do it, but I imagine they just roll their eyes and twist their chin, then, but I'm sure, and just—grin.

Dear Dolly—Is the Times going to publish a list of the boys and girls who are going to college? If so when will they appear in the paper.

COLLEGE GIRL

We will print them Sunday if we can get them together by that time. I wish all who are going away would phone their names to 840 or 33 before six o'clock tomorrow evening.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a young married woman and have my home work to do on Sunday the same as any other family, but my husband's people think I should let my housework go on Sunday and spend the day in church. My husband does not care for me to do work but I hate to make trouble in the family. What would you do about it?

YOUNG WIFE

I think it is all right for you to do your routine housework on Sunday, but this should not interfere with your attending church services either before or after you have "done up" your work. You should be more independent and not care what your husband's people think, since he himself does not care.

Dear Miss Wise—Is it all right for a bunch of girls from 16 to 18 to go out at night to the picture show or to any other form of entertainment when we haven't any boys to escort us around?

THE BUNCH

Girls of your age are going out together evenings unescorted. I think it is all right if not done too much and the girls return home at a reasonable hour. Of course it would be better to have an older person to go along if you have one handy.

Dear Dolly—A reader through your column told me S. B. Shaw was the publisher of the book "Touching Incidents, Remarkable Answers to Prayer," but they didn't tell me his address. How will I find it? Will some person tell me through your column?

THANK YOU

Dear Miss Wise—Would the juice of half a lemon in the rinse water injure the hair?

PETTY

The juice of half a lemon will not injure the hair.

I have the phone number of a woman with a two year old baby who would like to have a place to work in a private home where she could keep her little daughter. Phone 840 for further information.

A WIFE IN THE MAKING

CHERRY'S SPIRITS RISE

Now, as Mrs. Randall ascended to her own room, her thoughts were angry ones. She was about to be crossed and by her dearest child through the interference of this interloper. It was more than any mother heart could bear. For one minute she felt like sending Ned a telegram urging him to return as soon as possible for things were impossible. And she knew full well her power over him, especially where the wires were concerned. A telegram had always brought him to her feet in the past. Would one be sensible at this time, though?

After weighing the pros and cons, she finally decided against it. Ned might be put out, might think her selfish, and that was the last thing that Mrs. Sally ever believed herself to be.

At dinner she was oddly polite to her effervescent daughter-in-law, who by now was in high humor after receiving a telegram from Ned saying he would return within five days.

"The sounds you like best, love, mother," said Cherry, turning to her mother-in-law all smiles. "I got a whole long letter, almost over the wires, just like my dear Noddy boy."

Mrs. Randall bowed her thanks and went on with her food. She was inwardly raging at not having received a message from Ned himself. Truly, a mother's lot was hard. What could be sadder than to rear a boy to manhood and then have him walked off with by a snip of a girl? Her Ned, whom she had always idolized.

"Don't you stay at home this evening and go over Ned's underwear, Cherry? a lot of it needs mending?" she asked audibly.

"I can't tonight, mother, for I've promised to be at a meeting of the disgruntled wives' club, you see," answered Cherry. "But I had planned to do a heap of mending tomorrow afternoon. That will get things ready in plenty of time for Ned's return."

Mrs. Randall sniffed her comely disapproval of this club meeting, and remarked dryly that fewer wives would be disgruntled were they to keep their noses nearer to the mending basket.

At these words Cherry came near to bursting into laughter. Ned's mother was behaving like a spoiled child. It was too bad, just when everyone was in such good spirits, too.

Jack caught Cherry's eye at his mother's remark, and made a droll face. Cherry, her eyes dancing, with merriment, pleaded with him silently to stop his nonsense. And even Jane seemed on the verge of hysterics. No doubt she and her Mr. Sills had come to some understanding, at last, for never had Jane been so jolly.

"I'll walk over to the meetin' house with you, Sis," Jack volunteered, as they arose from the table shortly afterwards. "And would it be high treason on if a fellow peeked in one in a while just to see what a lot of disgruntled wives look like when they get together? Heave, heave?"

"Of course we don't mind if you look in," said Cherry, cheerily.

in the case cited. There was nothing new in the fact that these children were fed thyroid gland extract, which is prepared from lambs and bullocks, to make them grow. The striking thing in the case was the very large amount of growth in a short time.

In general, stature is hereditary. That does not mean that if the father and mother are tall the children will all be tall. Or if they are short the children will all be short.

Years ago an Austrian monk named Mendel discovered what is known as Mendel's law or the law of heredity. By this law we know that the parents may both be tall, but if each one of them had a parent who was short, then these two tall parents will have on the average one child out of four who will be short.

And if one goes far enough back in the ancestry he will find a short ancestor who accounts for the short one in the present generation.

Sometimes counteracting this law is a tendency known as Galton's law for the stature constantly to approach the average. If two parents are very tall the tendency is for their children to be less tall than they are. And if they are very short there is a tendency for the children to be taller than they.

There are also other causes of shortness of stature, such as various diseases. Hip disease and spinal curvature will occur at once to the reader. Not so well known are certain other diseases that affect the ossification or hardening of the bones.

Recently there has been made a study of three patients, one of whom was a dwarf 45 years old. He had been of normal size at birth, but at once developed gonorrheal osteitis. The studies on this case suggested deficient functioning of several of the glands, interfering with ossification and growth in general. The hip joint as well as other joints showed various anomalies.

Thyroid treatment was pushed and the man of 45 showed marked improvement and grew two inches taller. The X-rays demonstrating improvement in the structure and the shape of the bone, hair and teeth.

But the treatment had to be suspended on account of the great loss in weight. It would be unsafe to conclude from such a case that all dwarfs might be made to grow. But on the other hand it is undoubtedly true that a good many dwarfs or exceedingly short people are suffering from some condition, either endocrine or are like the dwarf mentioned, and their condition could be greatly improved by proper treatment.

Interest Increasing

Those failing to attend the meeting at Millbrook Casino do not know what they are missing. Interest is increasing, and the attendance is growing.

The message last night was given from Luke 11:5, "For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?" and also Acts 3:5, "Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk." Rev. Melvin Pratt told how the world today is dying because so many professing Christians have nothing to set before the world. But he also told them how they could have something to set before the world if they would get Jesus in their hearts and give out the living bread, that is Jesus himself, who is able to satisfy the hungry heart.

Bro. A. H. Johnston of Akron, is well worth hearing as he leads the song service and renders the inspiring solos.

going that President Harding is the greatest President since Lincoln and opponents contending that most everything done thus far is all wrong and that dire predictions about a business depression have been confirmed. The amusing part of the spectacle, for most of it is too artificial to be taken seriously—is that the Democrats are shouting about the "good old days of Democratic prosperity" when workmen's wages were high and the business man's profits were plentiful while the Republicans in turn are pointing the finger of blame at the war extravagances of the Democrats in piling up a tax burden that seemingly can't be reduced.

Pershing and Gompers in Word Battle

Meanwhile General Pershing and Samuel Gompers are having a newspaper debate on the subject of after dinner speaking and are reviving the controversy as to who won the war. Mr. Gompers is disappointed with the attitude of the Republican Administration toward labor and is making speeches saying that five million men out of work is proof of the fact that the workmen who wanted a change got what they voted for. Other labor leaders are crying that while Congress takes a vacation, there are millions of workmen who are also taking a "vacation" but without pay. All the partisan bickering, however, will not be immediately of avail to either side for disinterested political observers are confident that nothing has happened as yet upon which to base a definitive judgment concerning the Congressional elections of next autumn. The contest in New Mexico where a special election is being held to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Fall is being hailed as a test of Administration policies, but while the Democrats and Republicans are ready to crow depending upon whether the outcome is favorable to them each side knows in its heart that the election will not they too know from experience that six months does not make or break an Administration unless a glaring blunder or a striking achievement fulfills a campaign pledge on a burning issue. All that has happened thus far is a marking of time with both the Democrats and Republicans gloating at each other militantly while the country still hoping that Government can be conducted with "politics adjourned" for two or four year periods, waits patiently for lower taxes and better business conditions.

State Examiner Hetrick Here, May Locate In Peerless City

Under a new system inaugurated by State Auditor Joseph T. Tracy, chief of the State Bureau of Public Accounting, under which the state has been divided into auditing districts, Examiner C. S. Hetrick, who is now here conducting the annual inspection of the books of the various city departments, will probably establish his headquarters for this district and make this city his home. Under the old system, examiners never knew where they would be sent, which made it most inconvenient for them to have a permanent home, but under the new plan an examiner is designated for a certain district wherein he may take up his permanent abode. Twenty-six examiners and assistants are employed by the state under the new system. Mr. Hetrick is being assisted here by Gerald Chisholm.

WAVE OF ENTHUSIASM SWEEPS OVER NATION

Thousands Write Grateful Letters of Appreciation As Famous Medicine Continues to Accomplish Remarkable Results--Great Tanlac Laboratories Running at Top Speed to Supply Record Breaking Demand--Over Half a Million Bottles Behind With Orders.

By CHARLES MURRAY GILBERT

ATLANTA, Ga., September 9.—"Tanalac made me feel younger," "I put me back on the payroll," "I now have a fine appetite," "I can eat whatever I want," "No more dyspepsia for me," "I gained weight rapidly." These and scores of like expressions are now heard daily from tens of thousands, as grateful users of Tanlac tell of their experiences.

Leading drug men of the country are amazed at the tremendous sales of Tanlac, and point out enthusiastically that nothing has ever equalled the phenomenal demand for this preparation.

At the great Tanlac laboratories at Dayton, Ohio, letters and telegrams are pouring in daily asking that ship ments of Tanlac be rushed at once. Many of these orders are for full carload shipments, and quite a few of them for two and three carloads. Although running at top speed, the Tanlac laboratories are now over half a million bottles, or approximately twenty-four carloads behind with orders. This announcement will no doubt be received with great surprise in the drug world, because business in many lines, especially in the drug and medicine business, has been off from 40 to 50 per cent.

Agents In Every Town
One druggist in every city, town and village in the United States and Canada where agencies have not already been established will be awarded the exclusive publicity agency for Tanlac within the next thirty days. These agencies will carry with them a big publicity campaign exclusively for the one druggist in each city and town who secures the agency.

Tanalac is going right ahead more vigorously than ever before. For Tanlac there is no such thing as business depression. In fact, Tanlac does not believe there is such a thing as hard times at least, not in the drug business. Things are getting better every day. In a few weeks time they will begin to move. Hundreds of millions of dollars will be put into circulation, and business will soon be back on a better and sounder basis than in years.

Notice to Dealers
Many wholesalers and manufacturers stopped pushing at the very first sign of a dark cloud. The result being that many drug lines slumped. Tanlac went right ahead and the result has been that more Tanlac has been sold during the first six months of the present year than in any corresponding period in the past.

Line up with Tanlac. Connect with a product that sells no matter how the times, because of its superior merit.

Although Tanlac has been on the market over six years, it is an actual fact that more Tanlac is being sold today with the same amount of advertising than during any time in the past. Tanlac will not only prove your greatest seller for this year, but for many years to come.

Tanalac is sold in Portsmouth by the Fisher & Smith Pharmacy and the leading druggists everywhere.

Woman Kills Rattler; Man Cuts One In Two; Dog Trees 'Em, Etc., Down In Kentucky

The Vanceburg Sun has the following aggregation of prize snake stories in its current issue: HESELTON, Ky.—One night last week, after Vin, Pruitt and wife had retired for the night, she heard something fall from the loft along in the night. Next morning after breakfast she looked behind the door and there laid a rattlesnake. No body there but her. She cut a club and hewed him down like Samson did Agag in the Camps of Dan. She believes in capital punishment.

HESELTON, Ky.—The other day while Tom Sprinkle was holding a rattlesnake down, J. E. Blackworth cut it in two with an ax. A. O. Dixon was standing in a yellow jacket's nest looking at them and the jackets got all over him and O what a glorious feeling he had about that time.

11 inches; 3 feet 6 inches; 2 feet 9 inches.

When rattlesnakes abound as reported in last week's Mouth of Laurel news, where five rattlers were killed at one setting, it is small wonder that stills and boot-leggers abound; just have to distill pizen and vend it with which to counteract the pizen of the snakes.

R. J. Howard of Pleasant Hill killed a large copperhead snake in his dooryard. This has been the hame year for snakes.

Attention G. A. R.

Bailey Post will hold its regular meeting at Carnegie Library at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. Important matter will be up for consideration and all members are urged to be present. J. J. Davidson, Commander. David Combs, Adjutant.

REV. OAKLEY BACK HOME

Rev. Charles H. Oakley, pastor of the First Christian church, and two of his children, Alvin and Victor, returned Thursday, from their month's vacation trip in Ohio and Indiana. Rev. Oakley attended the National Convention of Disciples held at Winona Lake, last week, and reports one of the greatest assemblages in the history of the Brotherhood. He will resume his pastoral work at Third and Gay streets, next Sunday, both morning and evening. He is feeling fine and is ready for a strenuous campaign. The fact that Rev. Oakley will teach the big adult class next Sunday morning means added stimulus to the fall rally in the Bible school looked for that day, when it is hoped 1207 people will be present.

ACCUSED SLAYER MARRIES WOMAN SAID TO HAVE BEEN CRIME CAUSE

An unusual turn has been taken in the murder case of Ernest McGowan, who was killed on a farm near Chilhowee, Missouri, Aug. 13, by shotgun charge alleged to have been fired by Matthew McGowan, farmer. McGowan is in jail awaiting trial on a first degree murder charge and the new feature of the case came several days ago when he was married in jail to Cordelia Burgess, the woman over whom the shooting is said to have occurred.

Relative to the case The Star Journal, following: "Another chapter was written in the history of the Ernest McGowan murder case, which was committed southwest of Chilhowee Saturday, August 13, by Matthew McGowan. Thursday night when the defendant was united in marriage to Cordelia Burgess, who is said to have been the cause of the trouble which culminated in the shooting. The ceremony was said in the county jail, where McGowan is held on a charge of first degree murder.

Justice of the Peace McFarland, before whom the preliminary hearing will be held, performed the ceremony. "Local residents" who have been watching the developments of the case will remember the murder is said to have been committed because of jealousy over the Burgess woman, who is alleged to have been living with McGowan as his common-law wife. She has borne three children, whose paternity McGowan is said to have admitted.

"The marriage Thursday night will probably cause some complications for the state in pushing the prosecution of the murder charge against McGowan. The law provides a wife cannot testify against her husband in a criminal case, unless the husband waives privilege. This fact will probably have a direct bearing on the case, for the Burgess woman is the only one who heard the conversation which preceded the shooting.

"At the coroner's inquest the Burgess woman made damaging testimony against the defendant, but it is not likely this testimony will be permitted in the trial of McGowan. Many local attorneys declare the first degree murder charge was the direct result of the testimony which she gave. Other witnesses examined at the coroner's hearing could not give a detailed account of what preceded the murder, only information filed on their testimony would probably have resulted in a second degree murder charge.

The marriage of the Burgess woman to McGowan will probably cause a heated legal battle when the case is called for hearing in the circuit court, in the event the defendant is held at his preliminary hearing. Prosecuting Attorney Chance will make a strenuous fight to force the Burgess woman to testify, in view of the fact she was married to the defendant after the crime was committed. Efforts will likely be made to introduce the woman's testimony, given at the coroner's inquest.

BOSTON BRAVES COMING TO MILLBROOK OCTOBER 9 Play For Second Time Sunday

A contract has been signed and the plans are going forward for the appearance of the Boston Braves at the Millbrook park diamond for a battle with Gabe's All Stars on Sunday, Oct. 9. Capt. Billy Southworth, former local player who got his start in baseball here and is now one of the real star performers in the big show, will be with the visitors while Sam Jones, another former Portsmouth player, now one of the best pitchers in the American league, will be here to pitch for the local clan. Jones, too, got his start here in 1913 when Will Gableman was manager of the Ohio State league team and he was sold to Cleveland, later being transferred to the Boston Americans where he has since twirled excellent ball. Both Southworth and Jones are local favorites and no doubt they will be given a great reception by their admirers on their appearance in this city.

Guyardotte Club Coffee, mellow, aromatic, delicious. —Advertisement.

The football career of Charleston "Shorty" Davies, of Ironton, who gave promise of becoming one of the greatest stars of the West Virginia eleven, it is believed, ended for the present season, when he sustained a broken leg while in training with the West Virginia varsity squad last Tuesday afternoon at Reed Park, Maryland. This information came direct from the camp and naturally it threw the football camp of Coach "Pat" Spens into a cloud of gloom for Davies pointed head and shoulders above any of the back field candidates on the squad and the athletic authorities of Morgantown were more than convinced that he would have been one of the greatest stars in the game this year.

More Men Put To Work

CHILlicothe, O., Sept. 9.—Twenty-five car repair men were called back to work at the B. & O. shops, Thursday.

A great deal of car work is being done at the local shops and indications are that the greater bulk of it for this territory will be done here.
